Call to Artists for Art-On-The-Move

The Arts Commission, in partnership with Capital Area Transit (CAT), is inviting local artists to submit artwork for the third Art-On-The-Move, a public art project exhibiting art on Raleigh buses.

Participating artists create an imaginative art gallery on wheels, with original artwork wrapped onto buses through a vinyl heat-wrap process. The artwork remains on the buses for six months.

All submissions must be delivered to the Arts Commission office by Jan. 7. For more info: www.raleighnc.gov/arts (click on Public Art/Temporary Projects/Art-On-The-Move) or contact belva.parker@raleighnc.gov.

City Plaza Wins Grand Award

City Plaza has won a Grand Award from the American Council of Engineering Companies of North Carolina (ACEC/NC). This is the latest of several awards to be given to City Plaza, which the City of Raleigh opened in 2009.

Featuring Jim Gallucci's four 55-foot-tall Light Towers, City Plaza won the award in the special projects category. The Grand Award is the second-highest award given out by ACEC/NC.

Congratulations, City Plaza!
